~ A Message from the ~ Housing Community Leader

We are stepping into the holiday season! Everyone, dust off your sweaters and get ready for an exciting start to Fall. We kicked off the celebrations with a delightful walk at Oxbow Park, followed by our Oktoberfest festivities during the end-of-month happy hour. As we look forward to October, has everyone decided on their Halloween costumes? Will you channel a Vikings player like Justin Jefferson or Sam Darnold? Or perhaps you're leaning towards a classic theme, such as a witch or ghost?

I can't wait to celebrate at our Annual Halloween Party and when the kiddos stop by for some trick-or-treating.

Keep in mind that while the month is packed with fun and games, we also have important business to attend to, including annual emergency training on 10/22/24 and an Evacuation Drill on 10/24/24.

Be sure to join us all month on Wednesdays we wear pink in support of Breast Cancer Awareness!

When the witches ride and black cats
are seen, the moon
whispers, 'tis near Halloween

PINK October Breast Cancer Awareness Month!

Together We Can Raise Awareness, Get Regular Check-ups, & Face Breast Cancer with Courage

Join us all of October to raise awareness and wear pink on Wednesday's!

FOOD DRIVE SUCCESS

In September, we hosted a friendly competition among staff, residents, and visitors to contribute to our staff food shelf. Thanks to the overwhelming generosity of everyone involved, we successfully stocked the shelves. Arbor Terrace emerged as the big winner donating an impressive 72 items.
